

The Celebration of First Holy Communion

Left: Children begin to process in for their First Communion Mass. In all, 154 children celebrated their First Communion in one of five Masses on the weekend of May 4/5.

Preparation for the reception of Holy Communion consists of weekly classroom study and two parent and child educational meetings. Participation in the first grade is normally required for sacramental preparation in the second grade. Faith is an on-going journey and continues with religious education in the third grade and the years thereafter. Registration forms for the 2002/03 year are now available in the Religious Education Office. Classes begin the week of Sept. 22.
